CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE FORM

A potential or actual conflict of interest exists when commitments and obligation are likely to be compromised by the employee or board member's material interests or relationships (especially economic), particularly if those interest or commitments are not disclosed.

The conflict of interest form should indicate whether the employee or board member has an economic interest in or acts as an officer or a director of any outside entity whose financial interest would reasonably appear to be affected. The employee or board member should also disclose any personal, family business, or volunteer affiliations that may give rise to a real or apparent conflict of interest. Relevant federally and organizationally established regulations and guidelines in financial conflicts must be strictly followed.
